GENERAL BUSINESS

Membership Cards

- Membership cards were passed onto Ken who will write them out whenever he creates a receipt.
- Cards will be distributed at meetings.

Spending Money – Julie and Ian Cox

- Julie presented a lightweight windcheater/jacket which could be done in club colours with badge for approximately $55.00. Members agreed that the design was appealing.
- Ian presented two styles of hat – a cap, and a bucket hat. Members agreed that both styles would need to be purchased as there was a split in style preference which could not be compromised. Caps were $12.50 for 25 quantity with embroidery. Orders to be taken in person at the meetings or at the Christmas Party. Final costings to be presented at the next meeting. Money to be placed with the order.

- Further discussion to occur at the next meeting regarding how much money will the club put in and when will orders be placed?

Christmas Party

- After much discussion, it was decided that MCGI would combine with MMCCQ on their Christmas Run. Details to be placed in the newsletter, and emailed to members.
- Final numbers required by 23 November to MMCCQ.
- Details will be emailed to members, in the newsletter and will be available on the website calendar.
- Discussion at November meeting re: how much the club will pay towards it.
- Tina to make contact with MMCCQ to get details.

Trailer Working Bee

- The members agreed that Andrew should purchase the necessary items for the completion of the trailer and that he will be reimbursed for these costs.
